This Workshop Will:
Introduce graduate students to the various ways to conduct research at the Library of Congress and via its website. Students will also be given an orientation of the Main Reading Room. The final part of the seminar will include reader registration with the Library of Congress. All students must bring an official picture government ID card (driver’s license, passport, military ID). Large bags and coats will be checked at the coat room. ALL attendees MUST PRE-REGISTER with Dr. Pressley by sending an e-mail to him at ppressley@howard.edu. This seminar has limited seating. This seminar is designed for ALL DISCIPLINES (domestic and foreign students)
